If the Customer defaults on payment to the company such license is hereby automatically revoked. The Company shall not be liable for any use of the copyright material for any purpose other than the original intent.

8 THE COMPANY'S LIABILITY

8.1 The Company has no detailed knowledge of the nature or value of the contents of the Premises for which the Chubb System has been specified and in which the Chubb System is to be installed. The Customer does (or should) know the nature or value of the contents of the Premises, and agrees that since the potential loss or damage which the Customer might suffer is likely to be disproportionate to the sums that can reasonably be charged by the Company, and taking into consideration the opportunity afforded to the Customer to negotiate the terms of any limitation, the Customer acknowledges that it is fair and reasonable for the Company to limit or exclude its liability.

8.2 The Company accepts liability

- (i) for death or personal injury to the extent the same results from breach by the Company of its statutory duty (where the Company is strictly liable for such breach) or from any negligent act or omission of the Company;
- (ii) arising out of any breach of the Company's obligations as to title implied by statute;

8.3 The company will indemnify the Customer in respect of claims for direct physical damage to the Customer's property arising as a direct result of the negligence of its servants in the performance of this Agreement.

8.4 The company will indemnify the Customer in respect of claims for direct physical injury to, or the death of, the Customer's staff, where such is attributable to the negligence of Company or its servants.

8.5 The company shall not be liable for any loss of software data, how so ever occasioned.

8.6 The company shall not be liable for any indirect or consequential damages arising out of its performance under this Agreement.

8.7 Notwithstanding anything else in this Agreement, and to the extent permitted by law, Company's total liability in contract, tort, strict liability or otherwise arising in connection with this Agreement shall be limited in the aggregate at the charges set out in the Quotation.

9 TERMINATION

9.1 The Company, if it shall terminate this Agreement by reason of the Customer's default under Condition 6(a) above, shall have the following rights:-

- (i) to repossess the Chubb System or any part of it and to remove the same from the Premises or other premises where it is kept. If the Company is denied access to such place in breach of the Agreement, the Customer shall deliver the Chubb System immediately to the Company's branch address.
- (ii) to recover from the Customer all amounts due under the Agreement but unpaid, up to the date of termination, including all expenses incurred in repossessing the Chubb System.

10 SUBCONTRACTORS

10.1 The Company may perform any of its obligations under the Agreement through subcontractors.

11 GENERAL

- (i) The Agreement and the documents referred to in it cancels all prior agreements (whether written or oral) between the Company and the Customer relating to the Chubb System and contains the complete and exclusive agreement between the Company and the Customer.
- (ii) The Customer acknowledges that in agreeing to enter into the Agreement it has not relied on any representation, warranty or other assurance except those set out in the Agreement or any other document referred to in the Agreement.
- (iii) The Customer acknowledges that the information contained in the Quotation is provided in confidence and regarded as commercially sensitive information as defined under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (as amended), in particular our rates, prices, personal information and information deemed by the Company to be a trade secret.

This Agreement shall not be transferrable or assignable by the Customer to any other party.

- 11.1 No waiver of any breach of any provision of the Agreement shall be considered a waiver of any other or subsequent breach of the Agreement.
- 11.2 Rights and remedies which are available under the Agreement (or at law), are not mutually exclusive, so that the exercise of one or more of them is no bar to the exercise of any others at a later date.
- 11.3 In the event that any provision or any portion of any provision of the Agreement shall be held invalid, illegal or unenforceable the remainder of the Agreement shall remain valid and enforceable.
- 11.4 Any notice required to be given hereunder shall be sufficiently given if properly addressed and sent by post to, in the case of the Company, its principal address specified in the Quotation and, in the case of the Customer, its last known address.
- 11.5 The Conditions form an integral part of each Agreement for the supply of the Chubb System and any terms and conditions contained in or referred to in the Customer's order for the Chubb System shall not bind the Company unless expressly agreed by the Company in writing. If there is any conflict between the Conditions and any other document comprising the Agreement, then the provisions of the Conditions shall prevail.
- 11.6 The Agreement shall be governed, construed and take effect in accordance with the laws of England and all disputes arising in connection with the Agreement shall be subject to the nonexclusive jurisdiction of the English courts.
- 11.7 If we decide to use a scanned copy of this Agreement in any court action instead of the original then you agree that the scanned contract may be treated as if it were the original, and unless you can show that its validity is in serious doubt, we will not have to prove the scanned contract is genuine
- 11.8 A person who is not a party to this Agreement has no right under the Contracts (Rights of Third Parties) Act 1999 to enforce any term of this Agreement but this does not affect any right or remedy that exists or is available to a third party apart from that Act.

12 FORCE MAJEURE

- 12.1 Provided it has complied with clause 12.33, if a party is prevented, hindered or delayed in or from performing any of its obligations under this agreement by a Force Majeure Event (Affected Party), the Affected Party shall not be in breach of this agreement or otherwise liable for any such failure or delay in the performance of such obligations. The time for performance of such obligations shall be extended accordingly.
- 12.2 The corresponding obligations of the other party will be suspended, and its time for performance of such obligations extended, to the same extent as those of the Affected Party.
- 12.3 The Affected Party shall:
 - a) as soon as reasonably practicable after the start of the Force Majeure Event but no later than [five] days from its start, notify the other party in writing of the Force Majeure Event, the date on which it started, its likely or potential duration, and the effect of the Force Majeure Event on its ability to perform any of its obligations under the agreement; and
 - b) use all reasonable endeavours to mitigate the effect of the Force Majeure Event on the performance of its obligations.
- 12.4 If the Force Majeure Event prevents, hinders or delays the Affected Party's performance of its obligations for a continuous period of more than four weeks, the party not affected by the Force Majeure Event may terminate this agreement by giving two weeks' written notice to the Affected Party.

13 RESTRICTIONS ON SENSITIVE COUNTRIES

The Customer agree that it will not either directly or indirectly sell, re-export or transfer products, equipment, software, technical information or any services supplied under this Contract to the following countries: Iran, Sudan (including Southern Sudan), Cuba, North Korea, Myanmar and Syria including any entities or persons located in those countries, or who are owned or controlled by the governments of those countries. The Company reserves the right to change any of these countries in the future.

14 NUCLEAR INCIDENTS

The Customer will indemnify Company, against any liability to third parties, and against damage or injury, to any person or property including the Works, arising out of or resulting from ionising, radiations, or contamination, by radioactivity from any nuclear fuel or from any nuclear waste, save where liability or damage in respect of property, is caused by a corporate act or omission of ours done with intent to cause injury or damage.

15 ANTI-BRIBERY

Neither the party shall, directly or indirectly, make a bribe or other illegal gift or payment or offer, promise or authorize a bribe or other illegal gift or payment to any public or private person or entity, in connection with this Agreement. The parties represents and warrants that they have not taken, or permitted any of its Affiliates, agents, sub-contractors, suppliers or employees to take, any action which would constitute a breach of this provision, and covenants to comply with (and require its Affiliates, agents and employees to comply with) this provision. This provision shall survive the termination of this Agreement.

16 DATA PRIVACY

Compliance with Law. The products and/or services being provided require the collection of Personal Information (information and data exchanged in connection with this Agreement related to any identified or identifiable natural person or, in case of a conflict with applicable law, which is subject to any applicable data privacy laws). The parties will comply with applicable data privacy laws governing Personal Information processed in connection with this Agreement. The parties take all reasonable commercial and legal steps to protect Personal Information.

Rights and Obligations. If the Customer provides the Company with Personal Information, the Customer will ensure that it has the legal right to do so. The Customer will notify the individuals whose Personal Information it has provided to the Company prior to providing it to the Company.

- 16.1 The Company may share Personal Information with the Company's service providers in accordance with applicable data privacy laws and with appropriate protections.
- 16.2 The Company may store Personal Information on servers located and accessible globally by Carrier entities and their service providers with appropriate protections in place.
- 16.3 If the Company processes Personal Information under this Agreement, the Company will retain the Personal Information for the term of this Agreement and thereafter as required under this Agreement, to protect the Company's legal rights, or as required or permitted by law or audit requirements. If processes Personal Information for purposes separate and apart from this Agreement, the Company serves as a controller and assumes legal obligations as a controller, including for defining the appropriate retention period.
- 16.4 If the Personal Information is involved in a Data Breach Incident (set of circumstances that involve actual or a reasonable possibility of unauthorized access to or possession of, or the loss or destruction of, Personal Information), the party on whose system the data was stored is responsible for any notifications and associated costs. Unless prohibited by law or a regulator with jurisdiction over a party, the notifying party shall make reasonable efforts to coordinate with the other party to allow input into the notification before it is made.
- 16.5 While performing under this Agreement, if a party learns of any: (i) complaint or allegation indicating a violation of the applicable data privacy laws regarding Personal Information; (ii) request from one or more individuals seeking to access, correct, or delete Personal Information; or (iii) inquiry or complaint from one or more individuals in relation to the processing of Personal Information, the party will exercise reasonable efforts to promptly notify the other party in writing, except to the extent prohibited by law, law enforcement, or a regulator with jurisdiction over such party. The parties shall provide reasonable commercial assistance to each other in investigating the matter, identifying the relevant information, preparing a response, implementing a remedy, and/or cooperating in the conduct of and defending against any claim, court or regulatory proceedings.

17 BREXIT

After taking all reasonable steps to mitigate, the Company shall give the Customer reasonable notice should it suffer during the course of this agreement any adverse impact on this agreement, including increases in costs and expenses, as a result of an Event i) related to the UK leaving the European Union, ii) related to an epidemic or pandemic, or iii) beyond the Company's reasonable control. An "Event" shall include, but not be limited to:

- (a) changes in law;
- (b) government action, public authority action;
- (c) national emergency;
- (d) changes in health and safety requirements,
- (e) changes in environmental requirements;
- (f) imposition of sanctions or embargo, breaking off of diplomatic relations;
- (g) increases in tariffs or other duties, taxes or levies imposed on exports or imports, fluctuating exchange rates;

- (i) delays in export or import of products or services due to controls, processes or restrictions;
- (j) terrorist attack, war; or,
- (k) any other change to the business or economic environment in which we operate that may be unforeseen at the date of this agreement.

Notwithstanding any other term or condition of this agreement, following reasonable prior written notice to the Customer setting out the change(s) to the agreement and the effective date(s), the Company shall be entitled as a result of an Event, on a fair and reasonable basis, to (i) change any of this agreement's charges, prices, and/or rates so that the Company is financially no worse off than if the Event had not occurred, and/or (ii) vary any of the goods, products and/or services provided under this agreement.

In addition, it is further agreed that the Company shall have no liability for any delays to programme or delivery or any penalties, costs or damages that are associated with any programme or delivery if such delay is caused by an Event

18 DISPUTES

In the event of a dispute that cannot be resolved by discussion and negotiation the Company and the Customer agree to an initial process of mediation. The mediation will be conducted in London, England, in accordance with the Centre of Dispute Resolution (CEDR) Model Mediation Procedure (as in force at the date of the mediation). The mediator shall be nominated by CEDR. All costs, other than legal costs associated with the process, shall be shared equally by the Company and the Customer.

In the event that a dispute cannot be resolved by mediation all disputes arising out of or in connection with this Agreement shall be settled on a final and binding basis under the Rules of Arbitration of the Chamber of Commerce, by one arbitrator, sitting in London, England conducting the arbitration in English and pursuant to English Law.

19 LAW

This Contract shall be considered in accordance with English Law (Arbitration Act or its successor) and the parties hereby submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of the English courts.
